Hobbies and Interests

Sport, Electronics, Business functionality, Lean management

Sports help me maintain discipline, resilience, and a healthy work-life balance.

My interest in electronics reflects my curiosity about how things work and strengthens my problem-solving mindset.

Exploring business functionality allows me to better understand processes and decision-making in real-world environments, while lean management principles shape my approach to efficiency, continuous improvement, and delivering value in both personal and professional contexts.

Projects

STM Trade
01/02/2019 - 01/03/2019

Project for a local company that manufactures salt, crops, and so on. Was written on Gatsby and based on WordPress as a headless CMS.
